Morison International Welcomes New Member Firm in Basel, Switzerland

Morison International is pleased to welcome its newest member firm - Artax Fide Consult AG of Basel, Switzerland. Artax will further strengthen Morison International's existing presence in Switzerland by providing representation in the northwest of Switzerland from their offices in Basel. Artax joins existing member firms: Icofin S.A (based in Ascona); Fineac Treuhand (based in Zurich and Zug) and AAT (based in Nyon).

Founded in 1998 by Mr. Marius Zimmerman and Mr. Bernhard Madörin, Artax provides accounting and legal services to 600 private and public clients. Artax is a mid-sized Swiss firm and has built an enviable reputation for quality. This reputation is based on the technical excellence of its legal specialists, fiduciary experts, tax professionals, certified auditors and economists.

Artax is member of TREUHAND SUISSE- USF(Union Suisse Fiduciaire- Swiss Fiduciary Association). As a member of this association Artax complies to stringent anti-money laundering procedures; rigorous quality control and undertakes ongoing training of staff. Mr. Madörin is proud to have been President of this association for the past 7 years. The firm is also a member of the Revisions Aufsichts Behörde, who supervise auditors.

Morison International is delighted to welcome Artax to its global association of professional services firms.
